

1,000,000 Shares Standard Oil of New Jersey at 50

Believed That Rockefeller Interests Have Planned Big Buying Order—First Effective Buying Support in Several Days.

New York, Nov. 14 (AP)—Three factors were present in the Wall Street situation today which operators hoped would help to stem the torrent of selling.

These were:

An order to buy 1,000,000 shares of Standard Oil of New Jersey at 50, generally believed to have been placed by the Rockefeller interests.

Action by the governors of the New York Stock Exchange to learn if powerful bear interests were driving prices down.

A financial news agency dispatch from Washington that government officials did not regard the present situation as an emergency requiring action on their part and that financial institutions were in no danger.

These developments appeared yesterday during a session in which continued heavy selling drove prices to new low levels for the year.

The order for 1,000,000 shares of Standard Oil, the largest order ever placed on the stock exchange, did not appear until late in the day. J. H. Holmes and Company, brokers, who placed it refused to divulge the buyer, but the order was at once linked with the Rockefeller interests by observers who recalled that two weeks ago John D. Rockefeller, Sr., announced that he and his sons were buying sound stocks for investment.

Standard Oil of New Jersey touched 50 yesterday and closed at 50 1/2, a net loss of 3.37 for the day. The order is what is known as a "firm" one, that is, it stands until executed or is cancelled.

Brokers saw in the order the first effective buying support the market has had in several days.

The action of stock exchange officials to learn what part professional bear operations are playing in the unexplained decline took the form of a questionnaire sent to members by the exchange committee on business conduct.

The questionnaire asked:

A list of all stock borrowed, from whom and for whose account; a list of all stock loaned and to whom; inter-office borrowing and for whose account; and a list of all stock which has failed to be delivered and for whose account.

Members in New York are required to reply by Saturday and out-of-town members by Monday.

Regarding the attitude of government officials toward the present market situation, a special dispatch carried on the Dow Jones financial news ticker said:

"At this time unusual or emergency action is not in prospect. Officials have concluded that such action is not warranted by the present situation."

Soundness and very good position of the banks is emphasized here. So far as can be learned no financial houses are in danger. The view presented is that the market is in the midst of a wide speculative correction and that this correction will have to run its natural course.

Sales on the stock exchange yesterday totaled 7,761,459 shares. On the New York curb they were 2,770,650. Net declines on the stock exchange ranged from one to 29 points. Among the high grade issues only a few showed losses of more than 10 points for the day. Scores of issues emerged at the close with net gains.

The stock exchange ticker ran two hours and 47 minutes after the close of the three-hour session at 1 p. m.

FRANTIC OVER STOCK LOSSES
HE ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Philadelphia, Nov. 14 (AP)—L. J. Fava, 40, believed to have lost his own and possibly some of his clients' money in the stock market, jumped from the Girard avenue bridge into the Schuylkill river early today and was taken from the water by a Fairmount Park guard.

Fava apparently changed his mind after striking the river, for he was found standing in shallow water by the guard.

Near the spot where Fava leaped the police found an automobile in which was a note in a hat. The note bore the name L. J. Fava, and stated "I can no longer stand the thought of the misery that I am causing innocent people that have been more than good to me. The stock market crash makes it impossible for me to carry on to repay the money that I have borrowed, which has made me frantic."

After being treated at a hospital Fava was arrested.

PROMISES TAX REDUCTION
"BEFORE CHRISTMAS"

Washington, Nov. 14 (AP)—Tax reduction "before Christmas" was the promise made today by Chairman Hawley of the House Ways and Means committee which must initiate legislation to carry out the treasury proposal for a $160,000,000 revenue cut.

Hawley said the suggested reduction would cost the government only about $85,000,000 in the current fiscal year. In the next fiscal year, he said, Congress could re-enact the reduction if revenues should warrant, or consider another plan of temporary reduction.

Sweeping Rally In Stock Prices

New York, Nov. 14 (AP)—Stock prices rallied sharply from the opening of today's market and held most of their gains. Trading quieted down when it became apparent that strong financial interests were determined to support leading issues around the low levels established yesterday but were not inclined to mark them up in competition with other buyers.

Extreme gains in the active issues ranged from $1 to $18 a share, with a few specialties up $20 to nearly $50 a share, and most issues selling at or around their high levels as the market entered the last hour of trading.

Wall Street heard that two disturbing situations which had been overhanging the market, the nature of which was not revealed, had been satisfactorily adjusted, and that investment buying of stocks, particularly by large insurance companies and well organized investment trusts, had been resumed on a broad scale.

The determination of large financial interests to place a peg on such issues as Standard Oil of New Jersey, United States Steel Common and Anaconda, at which they would be supported with large bids, at least for the time being, served to discourage bear attacks, which have been held responsible for the recent destructive liquidation.

Auburn Auto ran up $49.75 a share on a few sales. Allied Chemical jumped $22; Columbian Carbon $20.50; J. I. Case $19; U. S. Industrial Alcohol $18; General Electric $17, and American Can. National Biscuit, Electric Storage Battery, Standard Gas and Electric, Waco Baking Preferred and Westinghouse Electric sold $14.50 to $16.50 a share higher.

Anderson Elected Presiding Bishop

Washington, Nov. 14 (AP)—A dynamic exponent of the separation of church and state—the Right Reverend Charles P. Anderson of Chicago—today took office as presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church.

The Bishop of the Chicago diocese will serve the two years remaining of the term of Bishop John Gardner Murray of Maryland, who died before the altar of St. James Church in Atlantic City, October 3.

Bishop Anderson's election came on the sixteenth ballot by the House of Bishops and as his first official act, he appointed the Right Reverend Hugh L. Burleson, Bishop of South Dakota, as his assistant.

In an address before the forty-ninth triennial convention of the church in Washington during the heat of the presidential campaign last year, Bishop Anderson flayed Socialism and Intolerance, and then declared:

"Whenever the church spends its energies on social and political reforms, or undertakes to fight the world's political and social battles by using the world's weapons, or identifies itself with the world in hope of producing a glorified human society by external pressure, the result will inevitably be a loss of morals."

"It is beginning at the wrong end," he said. "It is patching up the machinery of society which may work today and break down tomorrow, instead of reconstructing the motives of men."

Bishop Anderson, who is 65, was born in Ontario Province, Canada.

FOR INVESTIGATION OF COTTON EXCHANGE

Washington, Nov. 14 (AP)—A resolution by Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama, to investigate speculative activities on the New York, Chicago, and New Orleans Cotton Exchanges was ordered favorably reported to the Senate today by its Audit Committee.

Heflin had asked that the inquiry include the possible effect on cotton prices of trading on the New York Stock Exchange, but the committee decided to confine it to cotton exchanges. Chairman Deneen said he would ask the Senate to take immediate action.

SUGGESTS MRS. GANN AND MRS. LONGWORTH "FLIP COIN"

Kansas City, Nov. 14 (AP)—Solution of the social difficulties of Mrs. Dolly Curtis Gann and Mrs. Alice Longworth would be a simple matter if the principals would but accept a suggestion to be made to President Hoover by the Murray Davis Post of the American Legion here.

The legionnaires last night drafted a letter to the President suggesting: "Simply have the two ladies flip a coin for place at each dinner. That will be fair to both of them."

New Bank of International Settlements

Statutes, Charter and Trust Agreements Signed by All Main European Delegates Yesterday.

Baden-Baden, Germany, Nov. 13 (AP)—Purposes of the new bank of international settlements were described in the statutes of the bank published today by the committee which has just drawn them up as:

"To promote cooperation of the central banks, provide additional facilities for international financial operations, and to act as trustee or agent in regard to the international financial settlements entrusted to it."

So long as the Young reparations plan is operative the bank shall not only "observe provisions of the plan in administration of operations of the bank," but also "conduct its affairs with a view to facilitating execution of the plan."

During the Young plan's operation the bank is vested with the functions of receiving and distributing the German reparations and supervising and assisting in commercialization and liquidation of certain parts of the German annuities.

These statements of the purposes and functions of the new bank are contained in the first chapter of the bank statutes, which are published in a book of 160 pages.

The statutes, charter, and trust agreement of the institution were signed at 6:25 p. m. yesterday by national delegates who have been here for the last six weeks for the purpose of initiating the bank in accordance with provisions of the Young plan.

Only the Belgian delegates, Emile Francqui and M. Van Zeeland, did not sign, these two having retired to their capital a few days ago in a Brussels as seat of the institution. The signing was secured by the press present signed charter, statutes, and trust agreement.

There was considerable discussion as to the amount of publicity to be given the three instruments. All agreed that even the central bank trust agreement, since both might be changed in conformity with Swiss law and other contingencies.

The capital stock of the bank is fixed at 500,000,000 Swiss francs (about $96,886,500) divided into 200,000 shares, of which 112,000 must be subscribed before the bank begins business.

The subscription of the total capital is guaranteed by the Central Banks of Belgium, England, France, Germany, and Italy, also Messrs. "X," acting in place of the Bank of Japan, and Messrs. "Y," of New York.

Shares will not carry voting rights, the latter being vested in the respective Central Bank or its nominee or corresponding institution.

Chapter three contains the so-called "veto clause." After enunciating the general principle that the operations of the Bank of International Settlements must be in conformity with the monetary policy of the central banks of the countries concerned, the statutes continue:

"Before any financial operation is carried out by or on behalf of the bank on given market or in given currency the board of directors shall afford to the central bank or central banks directly concerned an opportunity to dissent." If there is disapproval the operation may not take place.

Chapter four vests the bank's administration in a board composed of officials of the central bank governors of the seven organizing countries or their appointees, or alternates who will be seven persons representative of the finance, industry and commerce, each appointed by his central bank governor.

The board of directors must meet at least ten times annually, of which four meetings must be at the domicile of the bank.

President's Power Sweeping.

The powers of the chairman of the board of directors, who also will be the president of the bank are sweeping. "Subject to the authority of the board, the president will carry out policy and control the administration of the bank." His term of office is three years. He is re-eligible.

Chapter five of the statutes provides that at general meetings voting rights shall be in proportion to the number of shares subscribed in the country of each institutional representative at the meeting.

Chapter six fixes the financial year beginning April 1. The bank must publish an annual report and at least monthly statements.

Chapter seven provides among other things that the bank may not be liquidated except by three-fourths majority in a general meeting and before it has discharged all obligations assumed under the Young plan.

Shot Parents With One Bullet

Chicago, Nov. 14 (AP)—With one bullet from his revolver John Rogalsky, Jr., shot his father and mother last night. The father was killed, the mother wounded. The police account of the affair said that during a dispute the elder Rogalsky sprang at his wife with a knife. She snatched the knife from his drawer, picked up a revolver from a drawer and fired as his father sprang toward him. The mother, rushing between the men, was wounded in the arm.

Mill Hook Farmer Dies from Carbon Monoxide Gas

Harry Haltzman, aged 56, a farmer living near Mill Hook, town of Rochester, was found dead Tuesday night by his wife. He was lying on the floor of his garage.

Mrs. Haltzman had gone to see where he was when he failed to return in a reasonable time after telling her that he was going to the garage to pump up a tire on a Chevrolet truck. The motor of a Buick car in the garage was running when she entered the building, the door being open a few feet.

Doctors Weiss of Ellenville and Fuller of Kerhonkson were called and endeavored to revive the man.

Wednesday State Troopers and Deputy Sheriff Block made an investigation to see whether there might have been foul play, as there was a bruise on the right temple of Haltzman. Some loose change was found scattered on the floor near the body.

An inquest was held by Coroner Humiston, attended by Dr. Joseph Jacobson of this city and Dr. G. F. Harker of Kerhonkson and a verdict was given that death was from asphyxiation caused by carbon monoxide gas. Besides his wife three small children survive.

Open Trial of Morgan Dayton

Who Is Charged With Assaulting Miss Gertrude A. Holden in the Village of Milton on January 30, 1929.

District Attorney Frederick G. Traver opened The People's case against Morgan Dayton, charged with assault in the second degree, in county court this morning before Judge Joseph M. Fowler. County court was held in the supervisors' room of the courthouse, because of the tax sale in the court room.

The district attorney opened his case with an explanation of a criminal action and then explained the facts under which the grand jury had indicted the defendant. The People charged that the defendant attacked Miss Gertrude A. Holden on the evening of January 30, 1929, on the highway known as the Dock road, running between the village of Milton and the river. The defendant, it is charged, assaulted Miss Holden as she was returning with supplies for her early evening with her mother. She is said to have been carrying a ham under one arm and using a flashlight with the other. The People contend that as she was traveling along the road, the defendant stepped into her path and struggled with her for some time.

It was snowing at the time, and as the two were struggling, a lady passer-by, who is said to have seen the struggle, thought that there were two men fighting in the snow. She asked them to stop, and one of them told her to mind her own business, or "his friend would tend to her." The lady continued on and told the station agent at the railroad crossing of the incident. The station agent returned with the woman to the scene of the affair, and it is contended that the defendant saw the two approaching and left the scene of the attempted crime. Miss Holden was taken to the station, where was found she was suffering from shock and other injuries.

District Attorney Traver, said that he had located the "friend" and would use him in the People's case. He further explained to the jury that in a criminal action the people did not know just what line of defense the defendant would follow, but he asked the jury to watch the evidence and action of the defense and weigh it carefully.

The defense represented by A. W. Lent opened its case by stating that the defendant wanted the facts known, and also the motive of Miss Holden in bringing her charges against him. Lent claimed that the defendant was the victim of some underlying motive of the girl to harm his character. The defense further contended that the struggle was seen by no one except the two persons involved. Mr. Lent pictured to the jury the various cases where a young man had been wronged by the motives of a woman, beginning with Joseph in Egypt, who was thrown into prison for two years because of vengeance, when a woman's will was in vain.

During the opening, the court interrupted several times to ask that no one be allowed to enter or leave the room during that time, because the room was small and inconvenient and every sound was disturbing. The People expect to bring a series of witnesses this afternoon to prove their case, and the defense is expected to rely upon the motive for the crime and cross examination.

CLAIMS HE PAID FOR LIQUOR RIGHTS AT CONVENTION

Los Angeles, Nov. 14 (AP)—Sixteen persons were under indictment today on liquor conspiracy charges accusing them of having promoted a "wide open town" during the recent American Legion state convention at San Diego.

Those under indictment are San Diego business men and American Legion convention committeemen.

The indictment followed a Federal grand jury inquiry after Charles H. Muloch, confessed bootlegger, had given information before the jury. Muloch claimed to have paid $2,000 for the sole right to sell liquor at the Legion convention.

Claiming he had been informed the "officials were fixed," Muloch said he brought a huge quantity of liquor to a downtown San Diego hotel, and then distributed his cards at the Legion convention. He said he made no effort to conceal his liquor selling because he "was promised his activities would not be interfered."

Muloch said he had been "double crossed" and that he had lost liquor valued at $100,000 seized by government agents.

Further Probe of Beer Seizure Here

Carload of Beer Alleged to Have Been Shipped From Brooklyn—David Ebel Makes Affidavit That He Knew Nothing of Shipment.

The carload of beer which was seized in the north yard of the West Shore Railroad Tuesday evening by Federal prohibition agents who later destroyed it is alleged to have been shipped from Brooklyn. It is alleged that the beer was consigned as brandy by the Eureka Feed Company to "Ebel & Son, U. & D. Siding, Kingston, N. Y." David Ebel of Ebel & Son, who conduct a feed and flour business in this city has made an affidavit to the effect that he had no knowledge of the shipment and that he had never ordered any produce from the alleged consignee. The case has been referred by the local office of the prohibition department to headquarters at Albany for further investigation in an effort to learn who the shipper was and to whom the 300 half barrels of beer were to be delivered.

Recently a carload of beer was seized by the local officers at Port Jervis. It had been shipped from western New York for delivery in New York city but when Federal men took up a pursuit the beer was not spotted in New York but when it was found the car was being traced it was re-routed to various places and finally arrived at Port Jervis where it was seized. The car came to Kingston from Brooklyn, does not mean that it was originally shipped from Brooklyn or that it was originally designed to be delivered in Kingston, according to the Federal men.

County Tax Sale Largely Attended

John R. Seaman Stated He Was Prepared to Spend Money and He Was Prepared to Pay Cash.

The tax sale conducted by County Treasurer Herbert E. Thomas was taken up at 10 o'clock this morning with an unusually large number of people in attendance. Many of the properties advertised for sale for taxes were not offered for sale as the taxes had been paid since the parcels were advertised. On account of the large number of people who attended the sale county court which had been occupying the court chamber was shifted to the supervisors' rooms on the lower floor of the courthouse and the tax sale was held in the court room. The room was filled.

Everything went smooth during the sale until John R. Seaman of Highland began bidding properties in the name of J. D. Schultz of Highland. Someone asked Mr. Seaman's authority to bid for another person and inquired whether he was authorized to represent the person for whom the property was bid in H. A. Lent inquired if Mr. Seaman had proper authority to represent anyone at this sale and while the discussion was going on another man bid in that property. Again when Eckert asked for his authority to represent the purchaser and Mr. Seaman stated that he was present to spend money and he was prepared to pay cash, he said he was going to spend a "lot of money" and on a property which he bid in for the taxes amounting to $22.86 he paid cash to Mr. Thomas. That settled the argument and he bid in several properties in Schultz's name.

At noon a recess was taken until 1:30 o'clock. At that time property including that in Olive had been sold.

One Per Cent Cut In Income Tax Is in Prospect

Will Be Recommended to Congress For Immediate Action—Mellon Outlines the Form the Proposed Reduction Should Take.

Washington, Nov. 14 (AP)—Tax reduction a material slash in the government's annual assessment upon the incomes of millions of individuals and business institutions today was definitely and luminously in prospect.

A general cut of one per cent in the normal rate of taxation, applicable to incomes of the present calendar year and effective all along the line, from the mammoth corporation to the lowly wage earner whose earnings just exceed his personal exemption, is planned by the treasury department.

A detailed program has been drawn up, after a careful examination of the many factors which control government revenues and expenditures and, with the approval of President Hoover, will be recommended to congress for immediate action when that body meets next month in regular session.

The treasury's plan even includes the form which the necessary legislation should take in order that delay, particularly that incident to a general revision of the federal revenue laws, may be avoided.

All this was revealed by Secretary Mellon in a statement published today. The desire of Mr. Hoover and Mr. Mellon for tax reduction has been well known for many months, but in their own view a determination of the effect of many circumstances upon the nation's finances was necessary before action could be taken.

Although saying that complete estimates of government needs as compared with prospective government revenues were not yet available, Mr. Mellon in his statement asserted the study of the situation had progressed to such an extent that a recommendation for tax reduction could be made.

The indications are that business profits, dividends, interest, and wage payments in 1929 will considerably exceed those of the year 1928, he said. "Our estimates indicate that the government should close both the fiscal years of 1929 and 1931 with a surplus. Taking all factors into consideration, the secretary of the treasury, with the approval of the president, will recommend tax reduction to the congress."

The Proposed Reduction.

Mr. Mellon went on to outline the form the proposed reduction should take and to show how the one per cent cut would operate. He pointed out that "on the average $4,000 of income income the rate will be reduced from one and one half per cent to one half or one per cent; on the second $4,000, from three per cent to two per cent; and on the third, the present five per cent rate will be reduced to four per cent."

The corporation tax rate, he said, would be reduced from twelve to eleven per cent. He estimated the total reduction of income taxes to be collected during the calendar year of 1929 at approximately $160,000,000. No mention was made of any contemplated revision of the surtax rate structure.

Since the reduction is effective on incomes of this year and taxes to be collected in the next, with returns to be filed by March 15, 1930, Mr. Mellon hopes Congress will avoid all possible delay in approving the

AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE assures the freedom of the press—Public opinion has been freed from the tyranny which denied it the right to pass judgment on public questions.

"toasting did it"—

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE'S extra secret process—removes harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

"It's toasted"

No Throat Irritation—No Cough.

TUNE IN—The Lucky Strike Radio Orchestra, every Saturday night, over a coast-to-coast network of the R. B. C.

"It's Toasted"—the phrase that describes the extra "toasting" process applied in the manufacture of Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—are scientifically subjected to penetrating heat at minimum, 260°—maximum, 300°, Fahrenheit. The exact, expert regulation of such high temperatures removes impurities. More than a slogan, "It's Toasted" is recognized by millions as the most modern step in cigarette manufacture.

Brought Here on Assault Charge

Carl Lasher of Poughkeepsie charged with assaulting a 14-year-old girl brought to Ulster County Jail.

Carl Lasher of Poughkeepsie was arrested there Tuesday afternoon on a charge of assault in the second degree. He was brought to the Ulster county jail following a confession made to Detective Tice and Trooper Baker of New Paltz, who were responsible for his arrest. Lasher is charged with an assault on a 14-year-old girl on Tuesday morning.

Lasher was seen with the girl, it is claimed, by men on the Highland end of the Poughkeepsie railroad bridge. When he saw that he was detected, it is said that he ran toward the Highland-Poughkeepsie ferry.

In his confession, Lasher stated that he crossed from Poughkeepsie on the ferry at 10:15, and saw the girl leaving the railroad station. He said to have followed close behind her, until she reached a cross road where he asked her. As the two were struggling, he saw the men approaching and fled, he said. He then crossed the ferry at 11:15 and was apprehended as he was following some school children. Detective Tice said that he recognized the man from the description given and also as an old offender. Lasher was recently released from Sing Sing prison on parole, and has been an offender with records at both the sheriff's office and police station in Poughkeepsie.

Lasher's record includes a conviction for attempted rape, an elopement with his brother's wife for which he served another term, and he is said to be implicated in several other affairs of a similar nature.

RESIGNS AS DIRECTOR OF THE METROPOLITAN LIFE

New York, Nov. 14 (AP).—Former Governor Alfred E. Smith today announced he had resigned as a director of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. He tendered his resignation a month ago. Mr. Smith's statement follows: "I resigned from the Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company because I did not think it ethical to be a director of the Metropolitan and at the same time be at the head of a real estate company which was applying for a large loan from the Metropolitan with which to erect a large building."

The application for the loan must be made as president of the Empire State, Inc., and would therefore have been passed upon by me at the same time as a member of the Board of Directors of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, which under the law must pass upon the loan. It was purely a question of business ethics.

"I deeply regret severing my association as a director of the Metropolitan Life."

The former Governor, with John J. Raskob and other business associates as the Empire State, Inc., is erecting an 80-story office building on the site of the old Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

Covers were laid for 12 business girls at the regular Wednesday night supper of the Business Girls' Club of the Y. W. C. A. this week and a delicious supper was served. Miss Mary Howard, the president, presided at the meeting directly following the supper and called for reports of committees after greeting the many girls present. Miss Bell, chairman of the program committee, announced that the committee had arranged for a Star Night next Wednesday evening, and for a Thanksgiving pageant the following Wednesday night. December programs were being held back as a surprise.

Mrs. Whiting, chairman of the social committee, stated that for several years it had been the custom of the club to give a party to underprivileged children at the Y. W. C. A. just before Christmas, at which time there were gifts, good things to eat, games, etc., but which also involved the responsibility of getting the children to and from the party at a time when the weather was likely to be cold or stormy. The committee had thought of another plan this year, that of getting the names and real condition of the children as formerly, but adding the amount used for "cans" to that for gifts and then taking such gifts to the children at their homes before the eventful day. After some discussion it was voted to adopt the latter plan this year.

Announcement was made that howling at the Y. W. C. A. has begun for this season, the women's night being Tuesday of each week. The howling will begin at 7 o'clock, and will be in charge of Miss Lillian Herdman. It is desirable that there be a large attendance at the Tuesday night games if the girls are to have the privilege of using the bowling alleys. All those wishing to play are asked to send in their names at once to the office.

This week is what is known to the world over—very literally—as Young Women's Christian Association World Fellowship Week, a big title and a big thought. Miss McClary was present and was given a hearty greeting by the girls as she rose to speak on "World Fellowship." Miss McClary said that she only wished she might have had experience in other foreign fields than that of France directly after the war. She vividly pictured what the Y. W. C. A. has done in Europe especially, where girls had, until the war, lived such secluded lives. Now it is not only Europe, but many other foreign countries—India, China, Japan and many smaller countries—that have established Y. W. C. A.'s where practical and spiritual aid and fellowship are given to the girlhood of the world.

Miss McClary told of just one instance in Bordeaux, where a very small group of girls were forced after the war to meet in a building with only three walls, a tarpaulin in front and a canvas roof and that during cold weather. Yet so great was the appreciation and enthusiasm of these girls that they made a contribution to the general Y. W. C. A. way out of proportion to their numbers. This week Y. W. girls all over the world are facing just such problems as the business girls at last evening's supper are facing and they are looking to their Y. W. C. A. groups for help and happiness. Miss McClary reminded the girls that today the greatest world problem is that of disarmament, or that of future peace. When one continues to comprehend what an immeasurable force could be exerted by the Y. W. C. A. organizations of the world along any line, but especially that of peace, Miss McClary said that the term "World Fellowship" took on an almost overpowering significance and the influence of these young women could not be realized.

Mrs. Teller gave another of her exceedingly interesting evenings on the subject, "Know Your Own Personality," touching this time upon "Dress for the Business Girl." In order to have the opinion of a specialist, Mrs. Teller said she had asked Miss McClary to give a short talk on that important subject, and Miss McClary held the closest attention of the girls as she showed and suitability of dress for the office or shop. Many pertinent questions were asked. Mrs. Teller's part of the evening's program was directed to the subject of becoming a good and an interesting conversationalist. These talks are proving intensely interesting to the Business Girls. There will be two more of them.

COLDS MAY DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Coughs from colds may lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsion of cod liver oil in a pleasant taste. Creomulsion is a natural remedy with no harmful action; it soothes and builds the inflamed membranes and helps the lungs grow strong.

Of all human organs, the lungs are the most important. They are the source of the blood which carries oxygen to every part of the body. If the lungs are weak, the blood is poor, and the whole system suffers. Creomulsion contains, in addition to cod liver oil, other healing elements which make it a most effective remedy for colds, coughs, and pneumonia.

Berlin Men Waging Fight Upon Clothes

Berlin.—The men of Berlin have been engaged in a desultory fight against clothes. During the past summer and this fall the hat was the first fashion to be scorned. For some weeks now Berlin has been a hatless city. A few timid conservatives, although not daring to wear hats, are now carrying their soft felt in their hands. The great majority of Berliners, however, do not trouble to pay even this much homage to the old traditions. It is common to see substantial business men going to their offices without hats or coats, while the younger men refuse to wear vests.

Mistakes on Ocean Charts to Be Checked

Washington.—Having found the depth of waters of the Caribbean sea off the Canal Zone greatly misrepresented on existing nautical charts, thus causing a hazard to ships, the Navy department has directed the cruiser Niagara to take extensive soundings between Corinto, Nicaragua, and Balboa, C. Z., to furnish data for a revised chart.

Evidence that the sea in that vicinity was falsely represented on the charts now used was discovered by the U. S. S. Cleveland on a recent voyage from Corinto to Balboa. During this trip frequent soundings were taken and it was found that at one point where a depth of 265 fathoms was indicated on the charts the water was actually only eight and one-half fathoms deep.

Small scale charts correcting the larger sea maps for the area covered by the Cleveland were issued to mariners immediately by the hydrographic office of the navy.

More extensive soundings are to be taken by the Niagara. They may result in drastic revision of the entire ocean chart for the Gulf of Panama, through which many American ships of war pass on various maneuvers around the Canal Zone.

Mississippi Builds

Isle Then Razes It

Memphis, Tenn.—"Old Man River" is up to one of his old tricks again. In 1910 Father Mississippi began building Mud Island in what had been the Memphis harbor.

Slowly, as the years and the muddy waters of the river rolled on, the island grew to be a menace to navigation and an eyesore to Memphis. In one year the island grew seven feet in height.

Engineers pitted their science against the great river, but their efforts were futile and the island continued to grow. Last year "Old Man River" must have heard the talking of making a municipal airport of his favorite child.

Anyway, he began to destroy his handiwork as carefully and surely as he had bulged nineteen years ago. The island, an area of approximately 1,000 acres, is eroding.

If the prediction of river men comes true the mighty father of waters will dissolve Mud Island and again follow its old course of a hundred years ago when it furnished Memphis one of the finest of river harbors.

Chewing Gum Gives

Golfer Hole in Two

Manchester, N. H.—Ex-Mayor George E. Trudel, ardent golfer, has given the rules committee something to mull over during the winter.

After making a tee shot Trudel discovered the ball clinging to the face of his club, attached by a piece of chewing gum. The rules say a ball once in play may not be touched by the player's hands until it is in the cup.

Trudel's solution was simple. He walked to the green, tapped the club against the side of the cup and claimed the par-five hole in two. He explained that only his love of fair play deterred him from claiming a hole-in-one.

Modern "Stenoc" Taught

to Type to Music

Lancaster, Pa.—Typewriting pupils in the commercial department of the Manheim Township high school near here have music while they work, not for pleasure, but to help them. "In order to attain speed at typewriting each pupil must acquire a certain rhythm in striking the keyboard," John F. Lotz, the instructor, explained. "In an endeavor to reach rhythm and timing we hit upon the modern reproducing machine. Popular marches that carry the same rhythm throughout are used," he said.

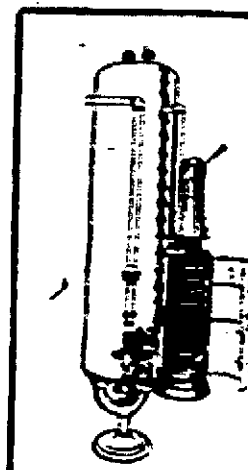

Declares His Drug

Restores Heart Action

Calcutta, British India.—The famous Indian scientist, Sir Jagadish Bose, who has just returned from Europe, claims to have discovered a powerful heart stimulant which, he asserts, will restore life after cessation of heart action.

Sir Jagadish's discovery, which he contends will go a long way toward conquering death, is derived from a plant found in the Himalaya mountains. He says it will render the known heart stimulants, strychnine and digitalis, ineffective.

CONTRAST

Since the dawn of history the great Sphinx, has stared across the Egyptian plains, oblivious to time and change. Guardian of the tombs of dead monarchs, it remains the symbol of a static world, within whose narrow boundaries men slaved in loneliness and fear, ignorant of Nature's secrets.

In fifty years science has revealed Nature's secrets, to revolutionize social and business life. Man is the master of comforts beyond the dreams of ancient kings. In this dynamic new world with its rapid interchange of ideas, the telephone plays an important part. A symbol of progress, it lets man's voice sweep beyond the portals of day and night to speak to nearly 29,000,000 telephones in three continents. Man is monarch of more than he surveys.

The Sphinx is a symbol of a dead past; the Telephone, an instrument of the living present that gives us mastery of Time and Distance.

Mr. Ohta Tells A Romantic Tale

(By F. G. CLOUGH)
Two Woodstockers who have recently featured in the news for the co-authorship of a book are Takami Ohta and Margaret Sperry. Mr. Ohta, who is a Japanese, came to Woodstock in 1906. He has an American wife and two children. The past year he has engaged himself with painting and theatrical designing. He was scenic director of the Woodstock Playhouse this year, their first season. Margaret Sperry has lived at Woodstock for a number of years. She graduated from the University of Wisconsin and later worked on the Sunday Brooklyn Eagle. The new book is "The Golden Wind," a tale of Ohta's thrilling experiences in China, while exiled from his native land. In China this exiled son of a Japanese nobleman seems to have been blown by a strong wind out of the East desert from one place to another, and from one experience into another. He was quartered in a general's harem, decorated in the army for bravery, sworn by a blood transfusion to a band of bandits and caught in a queer net of circumstances which threw him with several beautiful ladies whose beauty he refused to take. According to the interpretation of his story made by Margaret Sperry (by collaboration she has put his tale into English for him), Ohta was always an exile, never staying in one circumstance too long, always finding actors and fair women he dared not take, always fleeing from realities because of his dream.

This reviewer has little doubt but that it was Miss Sperry who, with a writer's flair, (and perhaps a feminine flair) for the dramatic and ultra-romantic, has colored up this tale with something resembling this fiction. It is of course the actual experience of Mr. Ohta that saves this story from being cheap or tawdry. Together these Woodstockers have written down a story that cannot escape the lover of romantic fiction. If there seems to be a bit too much of the thread of sensuality woven into the narrative, one can drop back to the authentic account of the Japanese man who has been through enough of dramatic existence to write several more books. This account rings true and reads like some ancient romantic history. There is no plot to the book. It is simple narrative, a tale of a wanderer who comes first to one place, then to another.

"The Golden Wind" enjoyed the distinction of being the first of a series of Paper Books published by Charles Boni, New York. It was published only a few weeks ago and has enjoyed favorable comment from critics. At Woodstock both Miss Sperry and Mr. Ohta are receiving the congratulations of their friends on the success of their joint book. Mr. Ohta has been a rather romantic character at the art colony town, with his American wife and two attractive children. One wonders whether this exile will give to the public some sequel of "The Golden Wind," for surface circumstances suggest that a more satisfactory ending could be given to a story of his experiences in the United States, perhaps a popular romance, as a sequel to this first story that has too much of hope and desire and too little of actual consummation for the average reader.

WEST SHOKAN.

West Shokan, Nov. 13.—Another Armistice Day milestone has been passed. Scarcely can it be realized that eleven years have passed since that eventful day when the nation went wild with rejoicing. The weather has proven ideal for rain has fallen to help the woods in deer hunting. Just enough drizzling condition for stalking. Although a number of deer have been killed about the reservoir section, they are reported to be more scarce than formerly.

The well diggers at the Hiltbrand property are not as yet meeting with success. Two wells have been sunk to depths of 30 and 35 feet or over without reaching water. The occasional blasting, which reverberates over the valley is a reminder that the boys are still digging away. This property was formerly the farm of Abram Constable. The fields were once hay and grain grew in abundance are now covered with brush and firewood.

Mrs. Abram Winchell of Broadhead was a Kingston visitor on Tuesday.

After a short stay home, Mrs. Minnie Smith has gone to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lena Pleasant, at Bridgeport, Conn.

Now that the trying period of election has passed, the carpenters have again resumed work at Mr. Jordan's granary and storehouse.

Lawrence Kelder and companion have returned to the Metropolis after ten days' deer hunting.

The game wardens are on their job, and were to the hapless hunter who is caught with a rifle on the City property.

The waters of the west basin of the reservoir were the sporting resort of hundreds, if not thousands, of ducks on Tuesday afternoon, perhaps composed of concentrating flocks making ready for their long journey to the southland. Their maneuverings were plainly visible from along the heights, and their quacking chorus plainly heard.

The Cuba, N. Y., deer hunters stopping at Maple Dell, are a bunch of fellows and are included among the leading citizens of their town. There is Hutterling, the fire chief and town marshal, a former A. E. F. doughboy. Danny Freddy Sloan, versatile, automobile salesman and former Gob. Clarkson Cole, hardware and sporting goods dealer, former hard-boiled drill sergeant who now would rather sleep than eat; Frank Royce, undertaker and electrician, erstwhile practical joker; Stanley Add and Jesse Burgher, dairymen and buckwheat farmers. These fellows who live within fifty miles of the Pennsylvania deer hunting country, prefer making the 365 miles trip down here in order to spend their annual vacations amid the wilds of the Catskills and the congenial atmosphere of Maple Dell Farm.

Dairymen along the milk route report a marked decrease in production of late, due perhaps to the rather uncertain condition of the weather and the diminishing late fall pasturing.

Shepard Bell assisted William Colange tending store on Monday while "Skin" Davis had a day off for deer hunting. Mr. Bell states that his system is responding to Dr. De-mond's prescriptions. In fact he looks and acts younger than for some time past.

Lauren Healey is one of the lucky hunters. His victim was an 8 point buck. The date of the Old Fellows' supper is Wednesday, November 27.

"we cast our Picture in METAL"

WHEN original zinc etchings are used it is not always necessary to make a metal cast of the illustration. In the case of illustrations in matrix form, however, this process becomes necessary.

A Matrix or Matrix in advertising parlance called a "mat" is produced from the original zinc etching by pressing the etching into the matrix paper (a special composition) forming a not-burning mold into which is poured a melted alloy, which when cool presents the same printing surface as the original zinc etching.

Through our exclusive franchise for the Meyer Both General Newspaper Service we supply our advertisers each month with a vast new selection of appropriate illustrations, which has its counterpart in no other form in our files.

ELEANOR GUNN ON FASHIONS

A Costume Capable of Leading a Double Life.

New York—One of the things of the long ago of the early twenties, women occasionally dressed in a costume with long sleeves to be made without any. This is what it would be made to serve for a formal and semi-formal occasion. The modern method is quite different and has the added merit of being a one-piece dress. It is a low cut, sleeveless gown or bodice, covering it by a jacket when the occasions seems to call for something less formal in attire. It is not only simpler but prettier and has the possibility of daintiness. Such a costume is aptly described as the evening suit. It has a contrasting bodice, not necessarily a tuck-in, and an abbreviated jacket matching the fabric used for the skirt. This is usually velvet but

SUNSET is a Concentrated Dye

In the little cube of Sunset you'll find a concentrated, quality dye that does a lot of dying. Sunset is not the ordinary aniline dye in an envelope—Sunset has in it the best quality, fast dye and lots of it.

But Sunset goes further: it is a combination, all-purpose dye—dyes all fabrics in one dye bath. And not only dyes them perfectly—but dyes them the same shade at one and the same time. Cleans the fabrics too in the same operation.

Sunset in every one of its 22 standard colors gives a true, even color that rivals the work of professional dyers at one tenth the cost!

Sunset is easy to use, is clean, never spoils utensils or stains the hands—no fuss—no bother—no simple that it is just fun to use it. If you have never used Sunset you do not realize how good a modern dye can be.

Get Sunset at your dealers; but be sure it's Sunset Soap Dye—that's the sure way to protect yourself from failure—15¢ a cake.

Ask the dealer to show you the Sunset Color Card.

Wedding Gowns Will Be Trimmed With White Fur

Winter wedding gowns will be trimmed with snowy furs if the American bride follows the suggestion of the Paris dressmakers, notes a fashion correspondent in the New York Herald Tribune. One of the most beautiful bridal gowns shown at the recent openings in France was of white satin with flowing panels carrying wide borders of white fox. The train, too, was edged with fox.

Fox in all shades is favored as a trimming this year. It combines well with the softest of materials for indoor wear and makes the flat furs, when they are used for coats, much more flattering to their wearers than the harsher pelts alone could be.

Fur hats are another harkback to bygone days. Pafon showed many of these in Persian lamb. St. Moritz caps he called them. They are extremely becoming and very jaunty in appearance.

The combination of the sheerest of materials with furs is a usual one this season. Lace and fur and chiffon and fur often are used in conjunction with one another and it is extraordinary how appropriate these combinations appear. The fur need, with sheer fabrics usually is fox. The effect is one of softness and lightness.

Satins Promise to Be Much in Paris Favor

In the midst of the smartest social season that Paris has seen in many a year, numerous fashion leaders have abandoned that standby of summer—printed chiffon. Crepe satin, moire and plain chiffon have been preferred, says a Paris fashion writer in the New York Times. At the height of style in evening materials is crepe satin, and the great Lyons manufacturers are forecasting its popularity in the highest and smartest circles for fall. Its sheen is doing handsome service in gowns of delectable yellows and pinks and in the whites from ivory to pure. Certain of the highest sources of styles predict that black satin will come in in full glory for fall.

And from black satin to black transparent velvet is a short and agreeable step. A vogue for these two materials is assured. And there is a third vogue promised. This is for black, or possibly colored broadcloth and sateen. The combination makes the choicest winter coats that the Paris dressmakers can conceive of.

Velvet, Satin Ribbon Used for New Fall Hats

The ribbon toques are of great importance in the fall millinery outlook. These are of both velvet and satin ribbon and are so woven as to cover the head tightly, come low over the nape of the neck, stand out at the sides and be perfectly bare in front. Some have the sides trimmed with two tufts of short feathers. Others achieve the broad side effect by huge bows of velvet or satin.

Current Red

The new red for autumn afternoons is current red, deeper and redder than lipstick, lighter than crimson. A flat crepe frock in this tone has a detachable cape that buttons across both shoulders with buttons of velvet or satin.

Velvet Tailor New

Velvet tailored suits promise to be a feature of the fall season because the material lends itself so wonderfully to expert tailoring and falls so gracefully and maintains its unexcelled freshness so long.

Elizaveta Wines Out

No wonder baking is better.....with Calumet's DOUBLE-ACTION.....

CALUMET'S Double-Action makes it easy to bake perfect cakes. Its first action—in the mixing bowl—gets the leavening started. Its second action—in the oven—is a full steady rising that lifts the batter up and holds it until your cake is perfectly baked—high and light and fine textured—even though you may not be able to regulate your oven temperature perfectly.

Because of its wonderful double-action, Calumet has become the most popular baking powder in the world—out-selling every other brand. Make a pan of Calumet biscuits or a cake and see what help this double-action gives you. Use only one level teaspoon of Calumet to a cup of flour. This is the usual Calumet proportion and should be followed for best results—a real economy, too.

All baking powders are required by law to be made of pure, wholesome ingredients. But not all are alike in their action. Not all will give you equally fine results in your baking. Get a can of Calumet from your grocer today.

MAKE THIS TEST

See for yourself how baking powder acts—and how Calumet acts twice to make your baking better. Put two level teaspoons of Calumet into a glass, add two teaspoons of water, stir rapidly five times and remove the spoon. The tiny, fine bubbles will rise slowly, half filling the glass. This is Calumet's first action—the action that takes place in your mixing bowl.

After the mixture has entirely stopped rising, stand the glass in a pan of hot water on the stove. In a moment, a second rising will start and continue until the mixture rises to the top of the glass. This is Calumet's second action—the action that takes place in your oven. Make this test today. See Calumet's Double-Action which protects your baking from failure.

Tel. 337. Open Evenings until 9 p. m.A PILGRIMAGE FROM ROME TO JERUSALEM

At the regular Sabbath evening services at Temple Emanuel Friday night, Rabbi Aaron M. Lefkowitz will speak on "A Pilgrimage from Rome to Jerusalem".

The pilgrim was Alise Palliere, a French Catholic living in Rome in 1832 when but 17 years of age, preparing himself for the priesthood. In the course of the evolution of his religious personality, while coming in contact with Jewish ideals and institutions, he felt a sudden urge for the faith of Israel. Several years later, he became a disciple of Rabbi Benaim, of Livorno, whose great work, "Israel and Humanity" he edited and published in 1916. This study revealed in an entirely new light the relationships between Judaism and Christianity and marked the beginning of Monsieur Palliere's pilgrimage. He thus became a sincere convert to Judaism by conviction.

Today he is assistant rabbi of the Synagogue of Rue Copernic, Paris. He speaks Hebrew fluently and is well versed in Ancient and Modern Jewish literature. He is very active in the Renaissance of the Jewish youth, leading his devoted assistance to the association "Shema Yisrael", and to the Universal Union of Jewish youth, of which he is president.

His spiritual biography, "The Unknown Sanctuary", has recently been translated from the French, "Le Sanctuaire Inconnu". In this book he expresses his belief that the religious covenant of Israel is the fullest and richest that men have come upon in their quest of God. Palliere has traced his pilgrimage from Rome to Jerusalem and has entered what was once to him "the unknown sanctuary of truth and peace"—as a devout worshiper within the holy recesses of Israel.

Speaking of this conversion, Rabbi Lefkowitz will discuss the Jewish attitude to proselytes, giving some idea of the present condition under which proselytes are accepted to Judaism.

Father and Son Banquet Friday

Plans are all completed for the annual Y. M. C. A. Father and Son Banquet at the "Y" Friday evening, November 15. The banquet will start promptly at 6:29.

Little need be said of the menu when it is announced that the Minnie Davenport of the town of Accord will cater to the fathers and their sons. The girls have prepared and served the "Y's Men's Club" at their weekly meetings for the past two years. The Davenport sisters will be assisted by several members of the "Y" Auxiliary.

Ray Barbuti, the only one to place in the 1928 Olympics from America will be the speaker. Those who have heard "Ray" are unanimous in their decision that he is a very favored speaker.

The "Y" gym will be handsomely decorated by a group under the direction of Willis Rider. The gym can be made to look splendid when it gets a few streamers and other things placed in advantageous places. Friday morning will be the last chance to purchase tickets.

MODENA.

Modena, Nov. 14.—Armistice Day was quietly observed in this village. Flags were raised in honor to and memory of those who made the anniversary of the day significant.

Homar Paltridge, who has employment at Poughkeepsie, spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Paltridge.

Albert Girard and Hans Anderson were business visitors at Newburgh, Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Paltridge, Mr. and Mrs. John Denton, Miss Belle Denton and Lester Wager were among a party of young folks who enjoyed a motor trip to Bear Mountain Park and vicinity, returning by way of Suffern, Sunday of the past week. A very enjoyable time was had.

A Buick touring car was badly smashed and its occupants injured in a crash about a mile north of Modena, Tuesday morning about 2 o'clock. The names of the party involved in the accident were not ascertained.

Friends of the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coy, from Modena and vicinity, gave a rousing serenade Tuesday evening, at the Coleman home near Tuckers Corners.

Members of the Modena unit of the Home Bureau held a meeting at the home of Mrs. C. Mathieson. An unusual procedure was the conducting of the meeting on the veranda of Mrs. Mathieson's home, as the sunshiny weather permitted, even though the month was November. At the conclusion of the meeting refreshments were served within the house.

Mr. and Mrs. DuBos Grimm motored to Long Island Sunday and visited with friends there.

Eber Smith left town Monday for Poughkeepsie, where he has employment at the Hudson River State Hospital.

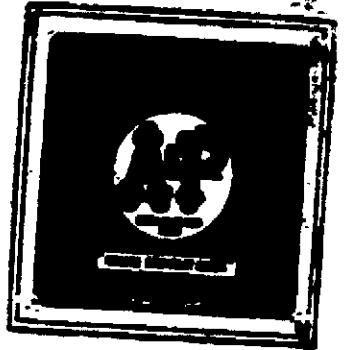

Albert Girard has secured employment on a farm at Gardiner.

Members of the Plattkill Rod and Gun Club were notified of a meeting to be held at the Community Hall Monday evening. Property owners were especially invited to attend.

Friends from Kingston visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Shultis, Sunday afternoon.

When Pillsbury's Best Flour is sold at the same price as ordinary flour, you can thank your grocer for a bargain. Even when you are asked to pay a little more, you still get a bargain, for Pillsbury's Best is worth a great deal more. This is no indefinite business of time and trouble saved—it's a matter of cold, hard cash. Every time you buy Pillsbury's Best Flour you actually save money—even when the price is higher. Millions of thrifty, economical housewives can tell you this is true—and they'll tell you the reasons:

Red Cross Proclamation

Mayor E. J. Dempsey has issued the following proclamation:

City of Kingston, New York, November 12, 1929.

To the Citizens of Kingston:

The annual roll call of the National Red Cross is now in progress. Each year the increasing need for the service rendered by the Red Cross is demonstrated, and it is incumbent on all of us to aid to the extent of our ability.

Attention is again called to the fact that the workers give their service, and it will assist them materially if our citizens cooperate. One way will be by leaving your contribution with a neighbor if you are not at home.

Very truly yours,
E. J. DEMPSEY,
Mayor.

SAYS HE WAS INSULTED
AND HUMILIATED

Editor, The Freeman:

A word of advice is not often given and sometimes when one of us gets humiliated we can do a favor by passing the word on, so our friends can avoid what we may have suffered.

Last night my wife and I, after walking up Wall street, turned and walked over Broadway. As we passed Fourth Park, I suggested we walk through. We walked up the well beaten path as we had so often before. We came to a bench, I lit a cigar and we sat down. As you know, the night was warm and a beautiful moon was shining. We had no money but we were seated in a car drove up and a powerful flashlight was thrown into our faces. I thought someone we knew was playing a joke on us, so I laughingly inquired what was the idea. At that one of our police stepped from the car and informed us he would show us what the idea was. Then he put us through a sort of third degree, informing us to get out of there at once, taking us where we came from and if we could not find any other place to go than to a public park. Understand, this was about 8:30 p. m. We were doing nothing but taking advantage of what, as taxpayers, we have helped to pay for. I unfortunately did not secure this zealous officer's badge number, but noted that his license number was 12-22. His uniform looked new and unused, his flashlight was bright and shiny, his manner was not only unbecoming an officer of the law but, was insulting, rude and uncalled for. I have always respected law and order, but now I can only ask, "How hath the mighty fallen?"

CONVICTS MOAN AS MUSICIAN IS FREED

Leaves San Quentin Famous and Wealthy Man.

San Francisco.—There is a secret sorrow in the ranks of San Quentin prison's 4,200 cellmates. One of their number has been freed. Scarcely a prisoner exists behind the walls of this great California penitentiary but who does not feel grateful to Damascus Garcia Gallur, murderer, the freedom at last given him.

True, these hardened criminals gave the forty-seven-year-old Gallur a soul-stirring ovation the day before he left the prison, late last month. Yet they hated to see him go.

Fourteen years ago Damascus Gallur had been sent there from Oakland for killing August Hotchkiss, a money lender. Previously Gallur served time for embezzlement. At the time he was an obscure musician, and once was in the band of John Philip Sousa.

When Gallur walked through the gates of San Quentin on parole because of ill health he did so as a famous and wealthy man. To his credit in an Oakland bank is $30,000, the sum he had acquired while in San Quentin. Gallur now is one of the most widely known composers of music in America. And even more to his credit are the San Quentin band and the San Quentin orchestra, not only the finest convict musical organizations in the world, but recognized by musical leaders as among the very finest of such organizations in or outside prison walls.

Ill Health Brings Parole.

Gallur was granted parole only because of ill health. Recently he had suffered a paralytic stroke, slight of nature, and immediately there flooded in on the board of state prison directors a deluge of pleas that he be freed.

Thousands of members of the Musicians Union of America pleaded his case. So did John Philip Sousa, Gallur-Curel, Philip Shapiro, the late Paul Steinhardt, and others well known in the musical world.

Sousa declares Gallur is one of two conductors who can lead a band of more than fifty in symphonies without once referring to the score. But the only plea that the prison board could recognize was the state of the maestro's health.

While Gallur's band and orchestra played only to those ears behind the prison walls, his music during the past 14 years has carried to many corners of the earth through the marches and the overtures he has composed.

Presidents Hear His Music.

A waltz, "May Day," dedicated to the daughter of the captain of the guard at San Quentin, brought Gallur $7,000 in royalties. He won the National Association of Music Clubs' first prize for the best march with a number he composed for the National War Mothers. The prize was $5,000. Gallur turned it over to the War Mothers for their work.

Perhaps his most famous composition, his "Gold Stripes March," has been made the official march of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and has been played before Presidents Coolidge and Hoover.

While Gallur's bank account totals $33,000, he is said to have amassed $140,000 during his term, the rest going to charitable causes.

In the last two years Gallur has been unable to sell his compositions, due to a new prison ruling forbidding convicts selling their writings. He has more than 600 compositions ready for music publishers.

Gallur is said to have been offered a contract of $1,500 per week to compose music for the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios. Louis Mayer is known to be among those who had worked for the prisoner's release.

Physicians are more or less dubious over Gallur's physical condition and doubt that he will ever be a well man. But the indomitable Damascus scoffs at them.

"I shall be well, and I shall lead a mighty hand some day," he says, "but none finer than those boys over behind the prison walls."

Cow From the Country
Finds City Life Bad

Maryville, Mo.—City life's a flop, a visitor decided here.

When "in town," farmers usually visit on the streets, often go to the drug store, may have business at the courthouse.

When the end gate on a truck came loose Mrs. Cow tried to do all these. The drug store, however, would not admit her, a chat with a little girl in a motor car was all one sided, and the courthouse was closed.

The cow was arrested on her way to the high school and was returned to her owner by Night Officer William Trullinger.

Evicted Bees, in Anger,
Stir Up Fire in Barn

Ferry, N. Y.—Bees stung Joseph Whitcomb and his horses and cows so badly recently that he decided to forever rid the barn of the pests. He applied a lighted torch to the nest, and it was necessary to call the fire department to save the barn.

An hour later the fire department was again called. The barn, however, was saved. The bees, however, were driven and stirred up so much smoke that another alarm was sent in. The bees, however, but the bees are gone.

The Pastor Says:
He who turns with hatred into his country keeps only of fire on his head.

WANTS TO KNOW—WHY A HEALTH DEPARTMENT?

Editor, The Freeman:

Purely in the interest of public health, I brought a sample of water from a spring here in Kingston to the city health laboratory at Crown and John streets, thinking they would be vitally interested in ascertaining if the water was free from disease bacteria and fit for human consumption. To my surprise the young woman in charge gave me to understand that the public health authorities were in no way concerned, and that if I wished the sample analyzed, they would undertake it as a personal favor to me at a cost of $5.

The water may be all right, but it smells very bad and tastes worse, and as this spring is the only source of supply for several families, I quite naturally thought the city health department would be most interested in such a comparatively small sample I carried to them, in the interest of public safety. In fact I was provincial enough to imagine that they were paid for that purpose. I am, to be sure, a newcomer in your city and perhaps my ideas of public service, gathered throughout the length and breadth of the land, do not apply here. Of one thing I feel sure. I do not believe there is another locality where the municipal authorities would be so indifferent to the health and well being of the community as to totally disregard the suspicion of a polluted water supply.

The young person in attendance also gave me, just as a matter of diversity, I presume, the address of a chemist, pathologist, or what not, in New York city, where I could take my little sample bottle of suspected water and they would, for a stipulated fee, give me a report on it. If it is not the duty of the city department of health to safeguard the health of its people, whose duty is it? And why a health department?

Judge Clearwater To Make Address

The Men's Club of the First Dutch Church will hold its meeting in the chapel of the church this evening. Judge A. T. Clearwater will deliver an address upon "Kings, Queens, Princes and Commoners at Niagara Falls."

During the 14 years that the judge has been president of the state recreation commission at Niagara Falls, among notable things he has entertained were the King and Queen of the Belgians, Prince of Wales, Crown Prince of Belgium, that great prince of the church, Cardinal Mercier, the Queen of Rumania, Madame Curie, former Prime Minister David Lloyd George and James Ramsay MacDonald, present prime minister of Great Britain, with all of whom he had pleasant relations.

The Men's Club of the First Dutch Church invite the community to come to its meeting. Light refreshments will be served.

Four Perfect Hands Fall in Bridge Game

Bagshaw, Mich.—That is how to one chance in a bridge game—four perfect hands—appeared here at a woman's bridge party at a tea house, with eighteen witnesses besides the four players vouching for the correctness and validity of the deal.

The cards were regularly shuffled, cut and dealt. Mrs. Hugo F. Werner, the dealer, gave herself all the diamonds; dealt all the hearts to Mrs. Everett Sweet, who sat on her left; gave her partner, Mrs. Clara Everett, all the spades, and dealt all the clubs to Mrs. Joseph D. Frost.

Mrs. Frost, sitting in the first hand, had shuffled the reserve deck and cut it after Mrs. Werner had reshuffled the cards.

PEOPLE WITHOUT RELIGION LIVE ON CRESCENTE ISLES

Man of Colony, Ignorant of All Tools, Let Women Do the Work.

San Francisco.—In the Amazon are the Crescente Islands, where a man with 17 wives is not the exception; where there are no tools; where the work is done by the women.

Such is the country from which W. Lloyd Warner, an anthropologist and former University of California student, returned recently. He has been studying aborigines of North Australia and the Crescente Islands for the Rockefeller Foundation and the Australian National Research Council. Warner will go to Harvard university, Cambridge, Mass.

The aborigines cook food in holes heated by hot stones. They have no religion. They have not even invented bows and arrows. Warner said. On the other hand, the people, who are big and strong, have an elaborate social organization and marked rules of etiquette and conduct.

Warner had to travel for a month from Port Darwin, North Australia, to reach the Crescente Islands.

Among other things Warner found was a requirement that a youth must marry his mother's mother's brother's daughter's daughter. They are particular about which grandma's side the bride is from, it seems, but they have no marriage ceremony.

"The children obey their parents," he continued. "Incorrigible youths are taken out by the old men and killed. There are about 4,000 of these primitive people left, living almost naked. They do not know weaving. Their only weapon is a stone-headed spear. They have no liquors or intoxication, but smoke a primitive tobacco. They know nothing about firearms or their uses.

"The aborigines enjoy a good feed. In the families the men get meat; the women live on nuts and vegetables. Each clan owns its own land. There is no money—everything is by exchange."

Visitor With Gun Asks "35; No More, No Less"

Atlantic City.—Warren Somers, Jr., an official of the Somers Lumber company and bank director, was seated at his desk when informed a young man wished to see him.

A neatly dressed youth was ushered into the office.

"What can I do for you?" Mr. Somers asked as the visitor sat down. "I need exactly thirty-five dollars, no more and no less, and you are going to give it to me," said the youth in a quiet conversational tone.

"Oh, am I?" replied Mr. Somers, somewhat startled. "And why?"

"Just because of this," was the answer as the youth fished aside his coat and exhibited a revolver.

Mr. Somers took another look at the revolver and then glanced into the nearby office where several clerks were busy about their duties.

"You are right. Here is the money," he said as he counted out the bills. The young man escaped.

London Seeks to Learn Who Made First Glasses

London.—Many millions of people use them but do not know who invented them.

Who did invent spectacles? This was one of the hardest questions which faced the recent London congress of spectacle makers.

W. E. Hardy, one of the organizers of the congress, said that many years of study have been devoted to trying to find out who first made eyeglasses. "It is thought," he said, "that the credit may be given Roger Bacon, the English philosopher and scientist of the Fourteenth century, but the situation has been complicated by the recent discovery of lenses in an old Carthaginian sarcophagus.

"There is no proof, however, that these lenses were used for defective eyesight; they may have been burning glasses. Spectacles came into general use in this country after the invention of printing."

Spanish Guards Take 46 Shots to Kill Bull

Madrid, Spain.—A fighting bull recently broke loose from the box in which it was being transported from the Barrio farm to Valladolid when the train was stopped at the station of Los Barrios, in the province of Ciudad Real.

The civil guards were called to take the situation in hand, and when they drove up in their truck, the bull "tore into it," damaging the truck considerably. The guards began shooting and with each shot the bull became wilder and wilder, and died only after the forty-sixth shot had been fired.

Man Solves Problem of Rest by Living in Tree

Mount Carmel, Pa.—Andrew Boltz, twenty-eight, has solved the housing and rest problem. After working all day at the new $400,000 bridge which he is helping erect for the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company at Locust Summit, Boltz climbs up a ladder to a temporary which he has suspended by twenty feet ropes from the limbs of two tall trees. When he crawls in the weight of his body pulls the ropes tight about the top, making his bunk waterproof.

FIREMEN REPEATED USE OF GRANGE HALL

Madison, Nov. 14.—The Platteville Fire Department, no similar organization, in distress of raising money to meet expenses and obligations. Realizing the benefits derived from dances and entertainments the members sought a suitable place wherein such affairs might be held, within easy access to the public at large. The Platteville Grange Hall was suggested as a suitable place, as most of the local residents, at least a good percentage, held membership there, and the Fire Department being a public institution it was not doubted that the Grangers would grasp the chance to promote the department's interest.

At a recent meeting the request was made known and votes were cast. Six members were in favor of having the dances when the votes were counted. Perhaps the Grangers overheard this and protested with great heat, so great that spot was noticed in the air. Upon this timely reminder the Grangers voted on procuring several fire extinguishers, but still would not give the door to the firemen.

Next door to the Grange is the Methodist church, whose grounds have provided parking space for cars which the Grange's premises could not accommodate. Moral: One should not close one's eyes and then forget to pull in their ears.

THE FIREMEN'S FRIEND.

Began a Big Industry

The shoe industry of this country was begun in 1629 by Thomas Beard, who came over on the Mayflower on its third voyage and brought hides for making shoes. Seven years later Philip Kertland, of Buckinghamshire, began making shoes in Lynn, Mass. Since that date the state of Massachusetts has come to lead the world in the manufacture of boots and shoes.

10c ISSUED WEEKLY 10c

Financial and Commercial

New York, Nov. 14 (AP).—A sharp and sustained rally in stock prices took place in today's stock market.
The sudden reversal in sentiment, after nearly a week of destructive liquidation, was attributed to the announcement of a proposed cut in federal income taxes, the appearance of large bids for leading stocks and the stock exchange questionnaire to determine the source of recent short selling.

The market bounded upward from the start, as blocks of 5,000 to 10,000 shares changed hands, and the initial gains were generally extended as the session progressed. A few weak spots cropped out here and there, as belated distress liquidation made its appearance.

Call money remained unchanged at 5 per cent and held steady at that level, but an easier undertone was apparent in other monetary accommodations. Wall Street was looking forward to another huge decrease in federal reserve brokers' loans after the close.

Such high-grade issues as U. S.
Steel Common, Standard Oil of New Jersey, General Electric, Westinghouse Electric, American Can, New York Central and Union Pacific led the rally on gains that ran from 5 to 18 points. A few specialties were marked up 20 to nearly 50 points, while gains of one to five points were quite common.

Crows Appear Unable

to Count Above Three

One writer says crows cannot count in Kent and another says they can in Staffordshire. Many years ago an old farmer in Kentland told me that they could count up to three.

The crows ate his maize but kept away if he had more than three. He tried going with a friend, who promptly went back. The result was that the crows kept away. He tried going with two friends, who both went back. He tried the same. But when he himself went back the crows ate once returned to the maize.

After many trials he concluded that they could only count up to three. If four or more men went into the maize and three came out again the crows went to the maize, and though many were shot the others never learned to count beyond three. I suppose crows are like men, some of whom never seem to learn how many bones make five.—London Times

Dramatic Contest Starts Next Week

Dramatic stars begin to twinkle in Ulster county next week. They shine forth on two occasions. First, at the Lake Katrine Grange Hall,
Thursday evening, November 21,
when the Lake Katrine Grange, operating with the Lake Katrine
Home Bureau, and the Ulster Park Grange meet in the first dramatic battle of the season. Second, at the New Paltz Normal School Auditorium,
Friday evening, November 22,
when Plattkill Grange, Milton
Grange and the New Paltz Home
Bureau grapple for the honor of entering the inter-county dramatic contest.

At Lake Katrine on Thursday evening, the Lake Katrine players will stage the comic little one act play, "Balanced Diet." The daughter in a family has been away to college studying home economics. All the comic situations resulting from her attempt to get across to her dad and the hired man all her new fangled ideas are given in a thirty minute round of laughter.

Ulster Park will stage the no less comic situation of the unmarried mistress with his group of ladies aiders and a none too tidy housekeeper.
"The Rectory" also is a one-act play and will give the audience many a good laugh.

Friday evening, at New Paltz, three plays are in store for the crowds that swarm in to cheer the contestants along. Plattkill comes into the contest with "The Managers," Milton with "The Teeth of the Gift Horse" and New Paltz with "The Dear Departed." All are first-class one-act plays full of life and promise the audience a real treat. Orchestra music will be given both evenings. The programs begin at 8 o'clock.

Protest Against Misrepresentation.
Washington, Nov. 14 (AP).—The Turkish republic has added its protest to that of Persia against alleged misrepresentations by American rug and carpet manufacturers in marketing of their products under Oriental names.

MICHIGAN RIVER

CRICK RUNNING CONTINUES

Flint City, Mich., Nov. 14 (AP).—Down in the Jordan Michigan river bottoms of Flint county approximately 20,000 persons will gather tomorrow to watch a sporting event. There will be no stadium, no cheerleaders, no presents or colors, but excitement will be at fever heat along the sidelines and 10 radio stations will carry the play-by-play to millions of persons.

It's the sixth annual "world series of the corn necks," the national corn husking contest.

Most of the twelve contestants have a liberal sprinkling of gray hairs, for the art of bouncing 'em off the bang-board at record speeds comes only with arduous years in the field. All are state champions or runners-up in the state contests. They are the very cream of the "mill-corn" states.

Represented in the field and in the thousands of spectators will be Indians, Minnecota, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri and Kansas.

Abandoned Memory Investigation.

St. Clairsville, Ohio, Nov. 14 (AP).—Belmont county officials today said they had abandoned investigation of the Tom Mooney case because of alleged conflicting stories told by Mrs. Dora Monroe, who last week made an affidavit placing the blame for the San Francisco preparedness day parade bombing in which ten lives were lost in 1916 on her brother, Lewis Smith, who died seven years ago at Cleveland.

Got a 1900-Pontiac Buck.
Mr. and Mrs. Everett Eckert of Field Court and Mr. and Mrs. John Hyser of the Spillway, returned from Mr. Eckert's camp in Greene county with a 2-point buck weighing 200 pounds. Mr. Eckert says they can't get away when he pulls on them with his new rifle.

ULSTER PARK.

Ulster Park, Nov. 14.—The Willing Workers of the Reformed Church will meet at the town of Mrs. E. V. Story on Friday, November 15, at 2 o'clock. Members are asked to note change of time.

Dance at Stone Ridge.

The regular Friday night dance will be held at the Stone Ridge Grange hall Friday evening. Harry Mahlenholder's orchestra will furnish the music.

Unmeasured Winds.

The strongest winds are those of tornadoes and have never been measured. Plausible estimates based on the effects of these storms run up to 400 or 500 miles an hour in some cases. The strongest winds ever measured instrumentally blew at the summit of Mount Washington, N. H., January 11, 1878. The indicated velocity was 105 miles an hour, but certain necessary corrections reduce this to about 140 miles an hour.

World's Fastest Bird.

The fastest known bird is the sparrow hawk, which reaches the speed of 220 miles an hour over the mountains of Idaho; the falcon of Florida, the fastest fish, can cover 50 miles in an hour.

GIRL PUNISHED FOR KISSING

BROUGHT TAKES POISON

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 14.—Poison swallowed after her parents were said to have scolded and punished her for kissing the young man who brought her home from an automobile ride early in the morning, ended the life of 19-year-old Esther Hartung, Buffalo State Teachers' College sophomore, today.

The girl, admitted to a hospital November 4, after telling police she had taken poison, had been lingering between life and death for 10 days. She said her mother, Mrs. Max Hartung, had dragged her from the car in which she sat with Howard Galton, berated her for kissing her escort, and slapped her.

Kingston High at Famous Pitcher Poughkeepsie Dead at 58 Years On Saturday

Kingston High School Varsity football team will journey to Poughkeepsie Saturday to take on the high school eleven of that city. Even rivalry has existed between the two schools for some years and as it is exceptionally strong this year the game promises much action.

Poughkeepsie is not in the DUSO League, so the Maroon and White squad did not get a crack at the Bridge City eleven this season. The Kingston boys are over anxious to lock horns with the Poughkeepsians, while the feeling of the latter group of gridirers is equal to that of the local football players.

A win over Poughkeepsie will soothe some of the sting received by the Kingston team last Saturday when Newburgh came to this city and dumped the locals' hopes of winning the DUSO League pennant. The 8-0 defeat handed Kingston by Newburgh was a big upset to the team that went through the season without a defeat, and then buckled when the time came for them to accomplish something worth while.

Kingston is out strong for a victory over Poughkeepsie. It is expected that a large number of "rooters" will accompany the team to the Bridge City Saturday.

Baronets Have Trick Plays

The Johnstown Baronets, a group of foxy football players, are expected to use the aerial attack and a number of trick plays against the Yellow Jackets Sunday afternoon at the Kingston Fair Grounds, so the local gridirers, in their nightly workouts in the rear of the armory, are preparing to put up strong defense against such antics.

Lots of pep and a desire to score a win over the Baronets is prevalent among the Yellow Jackets. They take to practice with a will and readily grasp all information imparted by Coaches "Watts" Wheeler and Carl Preston. Both bosses are satisfied with the way that the backfield is working and are well pleased with the action of the men on the line.

The Yellow Jackets will practice tonight at 7 o'clock. Every member of the squad is asked to be present as the coaches will have important "dope" to tell their men.

COLONIAL-RED SHIELDS MEET CONGREGATIONALS TONIGHT

The Colonial-Red Shield combination and the Congregationalists will start their seasons tonight when they oppose each other at Salvation Army Hall, North Front street. The game is called for 8 o'clock. The playing rosters of the teams follows: Colonial-Red Shields—Andy and Ed Gilday, Dawkins, Smith, Roosa, Aduchefsky, and Leasy; Congregationalists—Krum, Rockefeller, Sinsapaugh, Carpino, Cassell, Plathaber and Carle.

Sport Slants

By Alan J. Gould,
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

The loss of Al Marsters to Dartmouth for the rest of the season is not only a big blow to the Green team, but a distinct loss to the sport that expected to see the Arlington Antelope among the great and the near-great in its All-American array.

The spine injury that has put Marsters out of competition for the rest of the season takes away some of the lustre of his great performance against Columbia, Harvard and Yale. Al left a mark that only such super-stars as Booth and Cagle may shoot at yet he can hardly be rated in the mythical assemblage of all-stars at the close of the season above the rival who has gone through the whole campaign in the thick of battle.

Bruce Caldwell of Yale two years ago experienced the ill fortune to be declared ineligible on the eve of the Princeton and Harvard games, at a time when the Eli ace was an odds-on choice for All-American halfback.

No All-American contender anywhere faced as severe a test as did little Albie Booth of Yale in taking the gridiron on successive Saturdays against such stars as Cagle and Marsters. The Blue Bolt came off with first honors each time, before something like 75,000 wild-eyed spectators, to make himself the most talked-about sophomore ball-carrier since Red Grange raced into the spotlight at Champaign. Albie still has Princeton and Harvard to deal with but if his 145 pounds or less can stand the strain, the Tiger and the Crimson are in for a brace of busy afternoons.

"Among football coaches there exists a sharp difference of opinion as to whether recent efforts to 'open up the game' by the use of the forward pass, the lateral pass and other such innovations tend to reduce or increase the hazards of football," says the recent Carnegie report.

The pass is not the innovation that the Carnegie investigators might suppose but there seems little question that the "pace" of modern football has increased its hazards. In other words the strenuous efforts to win at almost any cost of physical endurance; the nervous strain of the big-game spectacles contribute extra drain upon physical resources. Witness such exhausting struggles as the Yale-Dartmouth or Stanford-Southern California games.

Brown had an "iron man" team that went through several games in succession without a substitution, starting with Yale, but it's a headline now when a player lasts the full 60 minutes. Most teams used from 20 to 30 men in a single game. The idea of having the regulars held as shock troops, originated by Knute Rockne, now has become widespread.

The same jinx of injury that pursued Al Marsters seems to harass Flying Frank Wykoff, the great Southern California sprinter. Wykoff strained a tendon just before the 1928 Olympics. He was out of competition much of this year because of illness. Recently, in a fraternity house fire at U. S. C. he was Here are the high point scorers for the various major conferences. They lineup as follows: East—Marsters, Dartmouth, 108; South—Ever, Tennessee, 91; Pacific Coast—Schwartz, Washington State, 72; Northwest—Miller, Arkansas, 66; Missouri Valley—King, Drake, 52; Ten—Pharrmer, Minnesota, 49; Rocky Mountains—Pomeroy, Utah, 42; Big Six—Baensch, Kansas, 24. Marsters, out for the season because of a jury received in the Yale game, is shown above listening to a radio report of the Dartmouth-Brown game which the Big Green won.

Spinny's Start Season Tonight

Spinny's Radio Five, formerly the Port Even Knights of Pythias team, will open the Port Even basketball season tonight at Pythian Hall with Fleischmanns as their opponents. The game is expected to be a very interesting one, which will be preceded by a preliminary and followed by dancing.

The evening of basketball at Pythian Hall will start at 7:30 when the Port Even Men's Club and the Veterans of Foreign Wars Juniors of this city clash. Both teams are hot after a win, so the game has all the earmarks of a real hot battle. As soon as the preliminary ends the big game will go on, the Spinny's taking

GRID GAMES FOR THANKSGIVING DAY

Restored to Chicago for a Period of Ten Years.

Thanksgiving day football will be restored to Chicago for a period of ten years, beginning in 1936, when two outstanding intercollegiate opponents, one from the west coast and one from the east coast, will clash at Soldier field. The ten-year program has been arranged by Will H. Wade, chairman of the Board of Directors, Chicago State University, who has accepted the chairmanship of the football committee.

Judge Walter Steffen, former University of Chicago great, and present Chicago jurist and commuting coach of the Carnegie Tech football team, has accepted the chairmanship of the football committee.

"The Shrine's Hospitals for Crippled Children are conducted as a general child welfare philanthropy in which crippled children are accepted, regardless of race, creed or color," Mr. Wade said.

Louis McConnell, the "Kicking Irishman" from the wilds of Massillon, Ohio, bids fair to become the best Ohio State punter since the days of Chick Harley.

McConnell, a junior at the Buckeye school, was just as good a kicker in 1925 as he is in 1935, but unfortunately he is not so "hot" when it comes to running with the ball, and for this reason he was parked unceremoniously on the side lines in favor of Byron Eby.

Although they'll fight until the last man's down and out for dear old Illini, considerable rivalry exists between Capt. Russell Crane and Leroy Wetzel, Zupke's staunch and copious guards, as to which is the better man on the wrestling mat.

After the rough-and-tumble football season, these two young huskies spend a good deal of their spare time trying to pin each other's shoulder blades to the canvas.

Bob Zupke rates Willis Glassgow, Iowa's classy little captain and halfback, as about the smartest back in the conference. When Glassgow cleared the line on his seventy-seventh yard dash for touchdown on the first play of the game with Illinois, he looked around to see who was following him. When he noticed that "Frosty" Peters was cutting across and that Frank Lanum was nearest, he let Frank gain on him near enough for a dive and then easily stopped and trotted on to the goal unharmed.

Zup explains that that is an example of Glassgow's coolness and smartness in an exciting spot.

Jack Coombs, baseball coach, watches the Duke football squad closely for several players of his championship baseball team are members of the football team.

"I am making plans to rebuild the Nationals with promising youngsters and am not interested in signing any slumping veterans," was President Clark Griffith's reply when asked why, in view of Manager Walter Johnson's expressed need of a right-handed slugging outfielder, he was willing to pass up Harry Heilmann, whom the Tigers sent to Cincinnati Reds on waivers.

The gold lined fairways of the south and the Pacific coast, as well as Bermuda and Honolulu, will hang up a total of $100,000 in prizes for the professional golfers this winter. The scene of competition will start at Pinehurst, N. C. November 12 and 13, and also conclude there March 27 and 28 with the north and south open tourney.

A new world's doubles record for organized bowlers was established by Marty Mullen and Walter Ward of Cleveland. The pair pulled the pins for a total of 1,433 for three games.

The air is calling another variety football ace. Harold Rehbock, Wisconsin's fighting fullback, has decided to become an aviator. The "Rebel" made his first flight and declared, as he smilingly admitted after having been taken through a succession of barrel rolls, loops, wing-overs and other stunts, that flying gave him as great a thrill as football.

Edward W. Cochrane, one of the leading football referees of the Missouri valley, will travel 12,513 miles over eleven states in officiating in games this season. He is booked for eighteen games extending to December 7.

The professional football scout is the latest in gridiron circles. Michigan has its own in the person of Bernard P. Traynor, former Colgate star and more recently coach at Wisconsin, Michigan State and Michigan.

Traynor has scouted Michigan State games for Mississippi A. & M. College and North Carolina State and was Colgate's observer at a Wisconsin game.

With the election of Halfback Jack James of Brooklyn to captain the Princeton freshman football team, a custom observed with but few exceptions for many years, has been broken. Since the 1924 season, when Calvin Case led the Princeton eleven from a halfback position, a freshman has always been awarded the honor.

It is curious, but true, that the most common coin, the penny, is the most ancient of our currency, and is the only one left which was known to our Anglo-Saxon ancestors. They called it "pennig," which has been corrupted into "penny."

Kingston Post Meeting Friday

The regular monthly meeting of the Kingston Post will be held Friday evening in the American Legion Memorial Building. All World War veterans are cordially invited.

The Victory Hall committee asks that all ticket money be turned in tomorrow night to K. A. Dechen, chairman of the ticket committee. An exact report of the financial success of the Victory Hall will be impossible until full returns of tickets are made.

A tentative report of the hall will be given by Edward J. Hillis, general chairman of the hall committee. This report, it is thought, will show that the Eleventh Annual Victory Hall was the most successful of any of its predecessors.

Commander Finch has a brand new idea on Legion membership campaigns and this he will give out Friday night. It is expected to make a big hit with all Legionnaires and serve the purpose of both increasing the membership of the American Legion and getting more members to become active in the work of the Post.

Mr. Finch also wishes all Legionnaires to know that several important decisions will probably have to be made by the Post tomorrow night concerning policies of the Post. These decisions will have far-reaching effects on Legion affairs in this city. For that reason he wishes every member to be present to have his say.

Plans will have to be made for the Christmas welfare work and members are asked to bring suggestions.

The Auxiliary will also meet and refreshments will be served.

Fish With Wings and Fins. The butterfly fish from West Africa have large wings as well as fins, and jump three or four feet out of the water, then alight and glide along the surface. It is a favorite sport on the West coast to shoot at them with revolvers, but they are seldom hit.

Polish Society Celebrates Sunday

The Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary Society of Immaculate Conception Church will celebrate the seventh anniversary of the opening of its home, White Eagle Hall, Delaware avenue, Sunday, November 17. The celebration will be of a spiritual and material nature.

A high Mass at 10:30 a. m. will start the program. Father Francis Borowski, pastor of Immaculate Conception Church, will be the celebrant. At 11 a. m. the material side of the celebration will be held in White Eagle Hall where prominent men will speak. The program promises to be of interest not alone to members of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary Society but to the public who are cordially invited to be present. No admission will be charged.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus and Mary Society is one of the oldest organizations of its kind among the Polish people of the Hudson valley. It was formed in 1891, when meetings were held in the homes of members. The organization grew steadily and several years ago became strong enough to erect White Eagle Hall, its home.

Societies from out of town will take part in Sunday's celebration, which is expected to be one of the most successful ever held by the organization.

Three Forms of Honey

Honey may be had in three forms—in the comb, extracted and granulated, but only occasionally in the latter form. Before the passage of the pure food and drugs act much adulterated honey was offered for sale. When unadulterated persons saw crystallized honey they often jumped to the conclusion that the presence of cane sugar was the cause of the granulation. To allay that suspicion the bottlers of honey heat it to about 145 degrees Fahrenheit and seal it in jars while heated, which greatly retards and in many cases prevents granulation.

If it is desired to bring crystallized honey again to the liquid form, gentle heating in a water bath will give that result without in any way changing the character of the honey.

Furs Long Prized

Fur history carries the reader back 10,000 years, further indeed than there are records of its use. The Bible refers to Adam's and Eve's use of furs, and later to other and badger skins used in the tabernacle.

Queen Semiramis, 2182 years before Christ, brought 8,000 tiger skins back to Babylon after an Indian campaign. The story of Jason and his quest for the Golden Fleece is nothing if not a chronicle of the furrier's trade. During the first 1,500 years of our era, Byzantium, or Constantinople as we call it now, was a fur center comparable to Leipzig, Germany, at present.

A Poor Sort of Wit

That sort of wit, which employs itself ineffectually in criticizing and censoring the words and sentiments of others in conversation, is absolute folly; for it answers none of the ends of conversation. He who uses it neither improves others, is improved himself, nor pleases anyone.—Franklin.

PORT EWEEN

Port Eween, Nov. 14.—The people of this village regret to see the town superintendent of highways, W. K. Van Vliet, leave office the first of the year. Mr. Van Vliet has done a great deal of work on the town roads and village streets. Some of the streets which were almost impassable in the spring are now in excellent condition.

A number from Kingston attended the fair and chicken supper at the M. E. Church house last evening. In spite of the inclement weather, the excellent supper, faultlessly served, was a decided success and 126 suppers were sold. A well rendered entertainment followed the supper. A chicken salad supper will be served this evening with an entertainment following at 7:30. Fancy articles and home made candy on sale.

There will be no prayer meeting in the M. E. Church tonight on account of the fair and supper.

Basketball game at Pythian Hall tonight when Spianey's Radio Five will meet the strong Fleischmann's team. The mountaineers expect to put a win over Port Eween tonight in order to even up for last year, when Port Eween was two out of three games. A preliminary game at 7:30 will precede the main game. Dancing will follow the main game.

Work on the state road has been progressing rapidly with the good weather.

I. D. Churchwell of Ulster Park has purchased the property of the Ellsworth estate on the corner of Bayard and Salem streets.

The village fire department has purchased more equipment. This company is now one of the best equipped volunteer companies along the Hudson. What is needed now is the water supply.

W. M. Stephenson is very busy installing heating systems in several places in the village.

Roller skating at Pythian Hall Friday evening. An enjoyable time can be had by those who care for this sport. A new floor has been laid and the floor space considerably enlarged.

A meeting of the Ever Ready Club will be held Monday evening, November 18, at the home of Mrs. Reginald Van Leuven, on Broadway.
